

VOGO's « Entreprise innovante » ⁽¹⁾ label renewed by Bpifrance

VOGO (ISIN code: FR0011532225 - Ticker: ALVGO) announces that its "Entreprise Innovante" ⁽¹⁾ label has been renewed by Bpifrance for another three years, making it eligible for investment by innovation-focused investment funds (FCPI). These funds promote venture capital funding for innovative small and medium-sized companies. VOGO has held this label since 2018.

This label is granted to companies recognized for their innovative and economic development perspectives, after a detailed examination during which the company gives an in-depth explanation of its products, procedures and techniques creation.

VOGO fulfils these criteria by virtue of a committed development strategy around innovation in leading edge audio and video solutions.

Christophe Carniel, co-founder and Chairman and CEO of VOGO, quotes: "We are extremely proud to be awarded the "Entreprise Innovante" label again by Bpifrance; it recognises once more the work of our dedicated R&D teams and the innovative nature of our technological solutions."
